Washington, D. C., Feb. 1.—Pastor Russell preached today in the Temple. His text was,
"Behold, I make all things new."
Revelation 21:5.

The Pastor showed that the Bible intimates that the seven days of the week are typical of seven great days, each a thousand years long. At the beginning of man's Week he was perfect, as represented in Adam; but disobedience to his Creator brought upon him the curse, "Dying, thou shalt die." Under that curse our race has gone down steadily to the tomb—the Bible Hell—Sheol, Hades.

Next the Pastor showed how ineffec-tually man has struggled against this curse of death. Today, he said, our race is assailed by more ailments, mental, moral and physical, than ever before known. Our jails, penitentiaries, asylums, hospitals, all bear testimony to this fact, he claimed. Even the morns of the world he believes to be apparently at as low a state as could well be imagined, after all our preaching, and manufacture of hobgoblins, devils and bells to frighten humanity into church, religion and morality.

Then the Pastor asked whether it is not time to acknowledge our failure and to cry to God for help ere we perish as a race. Not only have we not converted the heathen world, but we find the civilized world retrograding.
Statistics show that crimes increase amongst the heathen despite the preaching of eternal torture.

Man's Extremity Is God's Opportunity.

The Pastor next outlined God's great Plan of Salvation through the Redeemer, who died, "the Just for the unjust," to open the way for man's return to God's favor. During the Gospel Age the Savior has been gathering out an elect Church to be His associates in a coming Kingdom, in which He with His Church will reign for a thousand years. During that period Satan will be bound, to deceive the people no more; and the Redeemer will put down sin in its every form.

The Savior's work at the First Advent—healing the sick and the blind, casting out demons and awakening the sleeping dead—the Pastor showed was a foreshadow merely of the greater work which Jesus and His glorified Church will accomplish during the great antitypical Sabbath. These, as the antitypical Seed of Abraham, will fulfill God's Promise to Abraham.

Christendom's Great Mistake.

The Pastor believes that the creeds of the Dark Ages are gross misrepresentations of God's character. Many have taken these misrepresentations too literally. As a result, some have gone to insane asylums; others have turned to pleasure and sin in their endeavor to forget God; and still others have been made unhappy as they thought of kind, good neighbors and friends who made no profession of Christianity.

The speaker then showed that Chris-tendom's great mistake was that of disregarding God's Word and believing Satan's lie, as the heathen do. God declared that the wages of sin would be death—absence of life. Satan contradicted this and falsified to Mother Eve, assuring her that there would be no death penalty. When death came, Satan and his fallen angels perpetuated the lie by telling us that when our friends appear to die they really become more alive than ever. In accepting their testimony we have done what St. Paul cautioned against.

Evil spirits, he claimed, have seduced Christendom by giving feigned communications between the dead and the living. As Satan and his demon host have full knowledge of human affairs, they can easily personate the dead, and through mediums, witches, plan-chettes, visions and dreams, represent the dead as still alive.

The Pastor then drew a picture of the coming Messianic Kingdom. He declared that as the gross darkness flees before the dawning light of the New Dispensation we see more clearly where our mistake was. Bible students the world over are studying afresh the Word of God in its own light. Now they perceive that the resurrection hope is based upon the fact that Christ died for all.

Bible students now see that the world's blessing will be a resurrection to human perfection—a lifting up, not only from the sleep of the tomb, but also from all the weaknesses and imperfections of the flesh, back to the full image of perfection lost in Eden, redeemed at Calvary. Thus our great Redeemer will make all things new.
